

REPLENISHER

Meaning: Replenisher: a person or thing that restores or supplies a necessary quantity or quality of something, particularly nutrients or resources.

1. The gardener served as a replenisher of the soil's nutrients through careful composting.
2. In a world of constant consumption, the ocean acts as a replenisher of our planet's vital resources.
3. Her role as a replenisher in the community kitchen ensured that everyone had access to fresh meals.
4. The forest is a natural replenisher, providing clean air and habitats for countless species.
5. As a replenisher of hope, the charity works tirelessly to support those affected by disasters.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/replenisher>