REPLETIVE

Meaning: Repletive: filled or abundant with a particular quality or element.

1. The garden was repletive with vibrant flowers and lush greenery.
2. His speech was repletive of clichés and lacked originality.
3. The novel was repletive of themes of love and betrayal, making it a captivating read.
4. The museum's exhibit was repletive with artifacts that highlighted the region's rich history.
5. Her writing style is repletive of metaphors that vividly illustrate her points.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repletive