

REPLY

Meaning: Reply (noun): a response or answer to a question or communication.

1. I appreciate your quick reply to my email.
2. She didn't expect such a thoughtful reply from him.
3. Please make sure to reply to the invitation as soon as possible.
4. His reply was filled with enthusiasm and encouragement.
5. After much consideration, I finally found the right words to reply.
6. I sent her an email and eagerly awaited her reply.
7. His quick reply caught everyone off guard during the meeting.
8. After several days of silence, I finally received a thoughtful reply.
9. The teacher encouraged students to reply to each other's comments in class.
10. In a world dominated by texts, a handwritten reply can feel quite special.
11. I sent her an email, but I haven't received a reply yet.
12. His reply to the question was both thoughtful and insightful.
13. Please make sure to reply to the invitation by Friday.
14. After much consideration, she crafted a polite reply to his message.
15. The prompt reply from customer service impressed me greatly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reply>