

REPORT

Meaning: REPORT (noun): A formal account or statement detailing information, findings, or observations on a specific subject.

1. The committee will submit their findings in a detailed report next week.
2. She was asked to report any suspicious activity to the authorities immediately.
3. After reviewing the annual report, the shareholders expressed their satisfaction with the company's performance.
4. The journalist worked tirelessly to gather information for her breaking news report.
5. He decided to report his lost wallet to the police as soon as possible.
6. The journalist was eager to report on the unfolding events in the city.
7. She decided to report her findings to the team during the next meeting.
8. The latest report indicated a significant increase in the local population.
9. He was asked to report any suspicious activity to the authorities immediately.
10. After reviewing the data, the scientist prepared a comprehensive report for publication.
11. The committee will convene next week to discuss the findings of the environmental report.
12. She had to report the incident to her supervisor immediately after it happened.
13. The journalist wrote a detailed report on the recent political developments in the region.
14. He decided to report his missing wallet to the local authorities as soon as he noticed it was gone.
15. After reviewing the data, the researchers submitted their report to the scientific journal for publication.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/report>