

REPORTER

Meaning: A reporter is a journalist who gathers, investigates, and presents news and information for publication or broadcast.

1. The reporter arrived early to gather information before the press conference began.
2. After interviewing several witnesses, the reporter was able to piece together a compelling story.
3. As a seasoned reporter, she had a knack for uncovering the truth behind complex issues.
4. The local reporter's coverage of the event helped bring national attention to the cause.
5. During the election season, every reporter was tasked with following the candidates closely.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reporter>