

REPOSER

Meaning: Reposer: to rest or lie in a particular place, often in a state of tranquility or inactivity.

1. The ancient manuscript was believed to reposer in the dusty archives of the library.
2. After a long day of hiking, she decided to reposer by the tranquil riverbank.
3. The artist hoped his latest work would reposer in the hearts of those who viewed it.
4. To reposer her thoughts, she took a moment to meditate in the quiet garden.
5. Many treasures were thought to reposer in the depths of the forgotten cave.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reposer>