

REPOSITION

Meaning: Reposition means to change the position or strategy of something to improve its effectiveness or appeal.

1. She decided to reposition the furniture to create a more inviting space.
2. The marketing team needs to reposition the brand to attract a younger audience.
3. After reviewing the data, they chose to reposition their strategy for better results.
4. He carefully repositioned the painting to ensure it was centered on the wall.
5. The company plans to reposition its headquarters to a more accessible location.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reposition>