

REPRESENT

Meaning: To represent means to depict or symbolize something, or to act on behalf of a person or group in a formal capacity.

1. Art can represent complex emotions that words often fail to capture.
2. The delegate was chosen to represent our organization at the international conference.
3. In her speech, she aimed to represent the voices of those who often go unheard.
4. Symbols often represent deeper meanings that can vary across cultures.
5. The novel seeks to represent the struggles of a generation facing unprecedented challenges.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/represent>