

REPRESENTANT

Meaning: A représentant is a person appointed or elected to act on behalf of others, particularly in diplomatic, organizational, or advocacy contexts.

1. The company appointed a new représentant to handle international relations.
2. As a youth engagé, she decided to become a représentant for environmental issues.
3. The élu was proud to serve as a représentant of her community in the national assembly.
4. He felt honored to be the représentant for his school at the academic conference.
5. In the meeting, the représentant emphasized the importance of collaboration among teams.
6. The representant of the company presented the new product line at the conference.
7. In the meeting, the representant voiced the concerns of the employees regarding the policy changes.
8. She was chosen as the representant for her class to voice their opinions during the school board meeting.
9. The representant explained the benefits of the proposed legislation to the community members.
10. As a representant of the organization, he had the responsibility to uphold its values and mission.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/representant>