

REPRESENTATIVE

Meaning: A representative is a person chosen or appointed to act or speak on behalf of others, typically in a professional or official capacity.

1. The representative from the company delivered a compelling presentation at the conference.
2. During the meeting, she acted as the representative for her team and voiced their concerns.
3. Each state elects a representative to participate in the national legislature.
4. The artist's latest work is a representative piece that captures the essence of modern life.
5. He was chosen as the student representative to attend the leadership summit.
6. The elected representative spoke passionately about the needs of her constituents.
7. At the conference, each company sent a representative to discuss their latest innovations.
8. The lawyer acted as a representative for the client during the negotiations.
9. It is crucial for the committee to have a representative from each department.
10. Her artwork is a representative example of the contemporary style emerging this decade.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/representative>