

REPRESENTATIVENESS

Meaning: Representativeness refers to the degree to which a sample accurately reflects the characteristics of the larger population from which it is drawn.

1. The representativeness of the survey sample was crucial for obtaining reliable results.
2. Researchers often debate the representativeness of their data in relation to the larger population.
3. In order to assess the representativeness of the findings, we compared them with national statistics.
4. The representativeness of the participants in the study ensured that the conclusions were valid for diverse groups.
5. A lack of representativeness can lead to skewed interpretations and misguided policy decisions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/representativeness>