

REPRESS

Meaning: Repress: to suppress or restrain thoughts, feelings, or actions, often by force or authority.

1. The government sought to repress dissent through strict censorship laws.
2. She struggled to repress her emotions during the challenging conversation.
3. Historical accounts reveal how regimes often repress the rights of minorities.
4. In order to maintain control, leaders may repress any signs of rebellion.
5. He found it difficult to repress his laughter at the unexpected joke.
6. The government attempted to repress dissent through strict censorship laws.
7. She found it difficult to repress her emotions during the intense scene in the movie.
8. Years of conflict had caused the community to repress their traditions and cultural practices.
9. In her quest for perfection, she often had to repress her creative instincts.
10. The therapy sessions helped him learn to express rather than repress his feelings.
11. The government sought to repress the growing dissent among its citizens.
12. In her efforts to maintain composure, she tried to repress her emotions during the meeting.
13. He realized that repressing his true feelings was only causing him more pain in the long run.
14. The oppressive regime aimed to repress any form of artistic expression that challenged its authority.
15. To achieve their goals, they would need to repress the urge to act impulsively.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repress>