

REPRIEFE

Meaning: Reprieve: a temporary delay or suspension of a punishment or sentence.

1. The governor granted a reprieve to the condemned prisoner, allowing more time for appeals.
2. After reviewing the evidence, the judge decided to issue a temporary reprieve for the defendant's sentence.
3. The unexpected storm provided a reprieve from the intense heat, bringing much-needed relief to the community.
4. Many were grateful for the reprieve in their hectic schedules as the holiday season approached.
5. The sudden drop in prices at the local grocery store felt like a reprieve for many struggling families.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reprieffe>