

REPRIMANDER

Meaning: Reprimander: a person who expresses disapproval or criticism, especially in an official or formal manner.

1. The teacher acted as a reprimander when she addressed the student's disruptive behavior in class.
2. After the meeting, the manager took on the role of reprimander to address the team's shortcomings in the project.
3. His reputation as a stern reprimander made employees think twice before making mistakes.
4. During the review, the supervisor emerged as a firm reprimander, emphasizing the need for improvement.
5. She delivered her reprimand with a tone that balanced authority and empathy, proving she could be a fair reprimander.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reprimander>