

REPRIMER

Meaning: Reprimer (verb): to apply a primer coat again to a surface or project, typically to enhance adhesion or prepare for further finishing.

1. The manager had to reprimer the project after receiving feedback from the clients.
2. To ensure a smooth finish, she decided to reprimer the walls before painting them.
3. He needed to reprimer the car's surface to get rid of the old, chipped paint.
4. After the first coat dried, it was clear they needed to reprimer the entire surface for better adhesion.
5. The artist chose to reprimer the canvas to prepare it for a new layer of oil paint.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reprimer>