

REPROBATIONER

Meaning: Reprobationer: a person who has been condemned or rejected, often due to past misdeeds or moral failings, and is seeking redemption or acceptance.

1. The reprobationer struggled to find acceptance among his peers due to his past mistakes.
2. In the classroom, the teacher had to address the behavior of the reprobationer, hoping to guide him back on track.
3. Despite being labeled a reprobationer, she showed remarkable potential that few had recognized.
4. The community rallied around the reprobationer, believing in his ability to change and grow.
5. His journey from reprobationer to model citizen inspired many in the neighborhood.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reprobationer>