

REPROBATIVE

Meaning: Reproductive: expressing strong disapproval or criticism.

1. The reprobative tone of the critic's review left little room for interpretation of the film's flaws.
2. In his speech, the politician employed reprobative language to condemn the actions of his opponents.
3. The professor's reprobative comments during the lecture prompted a lively debate among the students.
4. Her reprobative stare made it clear that she disapproved of the decision.
5. The reprobative nature of the editorial highlighted the need for reform in the education system.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reprobative>