

REPRODUCTION

Meaning: Reproduction is the process of creating new individuals or copies, essential for species survival and the replication of artistic techniques.

1. Reproduction is a fundamental process for the survival of many species in the animal kingdom.
2. The artist focused on the reproduction of classical techniques in his modern paintings.
3. In biology, reproduction can occur both sexually and asexually, depending on the organism.
4. The documentary explored the impact of environmental changes on the reproduction of marine life.
5. Advancements in technology have improved the reproduction quality of historical documents and artworks.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reproduction>