

REPROVABLE

Meaning: REPROVABLE: deserving of criticism or disapproval; blameworthy.

1. His behavior at the meeting was clearly reproachable, leading to a loss of respect among his colleagues.
2. The teacher emphasized that dishonesty is reproachable, regardless of the circumstances.
3. Despite his good intentions, his actions were ultimately found to be reproachable by the committee.
4. She felt that criticizing her friend for a minor mistake was unnecessary and even reproachable.
5. In a professional setting, any form of discrimination is considered reproachable and should not be tolerated.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reprovable>