

REPROVAL

Meaning: Reproval is the expression of disapproval or criticism.

1. Her face fell at the sound of his reproof, a clear indicator of her deep sense of reproof.
2. The teacher expressed her reproof of the student's behavior in front of the entire class.
3. He could sense the reproof in her tone, even though she never explicitly stated her disapproval.
4. Receiving reproof from his peers was difficult for him, but he knew it was necessary for his growth.
5. The manager's reproof was stern but fair, pushing the team to improve their performance.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reproval>