

REPRUNE

Meaning: Reprune: to trim or cut back plants again to promote healthy growth and maintain their shape.

1. After the harsh winter, it became necessary to re prune the rose bushes to encourage new growth.
2. The gardener decided to re prune the overgrown hedges to restore their original shape and health.
3. In spring, many horticulturists recommend to re prune fruit trees to maximize their yield for the season.
4. She realized that she needed to re prune her indoor plants to remove any dead leaves and promote better air circulation.
5. To maintain the health of the shrubs, the landscaper scheduled a time to re prune them before the blooming season.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reprune>