

REPTILE

Meaning: A reptile is a cold-blooded vertebrate animal that typically has dry scaly skin and lays eggs, including snakes, lizards, and turtles.

1. The snake slithered across the sun-soaked rocks, a perfect example of a reptile in its natural habitat.
2. Many people are fascinated by reptiles, especially the colorful chameleons that change their skin color.
3. The museum's exhibit on reptiles showcased a variety of species, including turtles, lizards, and iguanas.
4. To maintain a healthy ecosystem, it's important to protect the habitats of various reptiles that play vital roles.
5. Reptiles are ectothermic creatures, relying on external heat sources to regulate their body temperature.
6. The museum's new exhibit features a variety of reptiles, including snakes and lizards.
7. She has always been fascinated by the unique adaptations of reptiles in different environments.
8. In the warm sunlight, the iguana basked on the rock, showcasing its vibrant scales.
9. Many reptiles are cold-blooded and rely on their surroundings to regulate their body temperature.
10. The discovery of a new species of reptile thrilled scientists and enthusiasts alike.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reptile>