

REPUBLICAN

Meaning: Republican: relating to or denoting a political party in the United States that advocates for conservative policies, limited government, and individual liberties.

1. The Republican Party has traditionally emphasized limited government and individual liberties.
2. Many voters identify as Republican due to their conservative views on social issues.
3. During the election, the Republican candidate focused on economic growth and job creation.
4. The Republican National Convention is a major event where party members gather to nominate their presidential candidate.
5. In recent years, the Republican leadership has faced challenges in uniting its diverse factions.
6. The Republican party has traditionally advocated for lower taxes and limited government intervention.
7. During the election, the candidate's Republican platform focused on strengthening national security and economic growth.
8. Many voters were drawn to the Republican values of personal responsibility and free market principles.
9. The debate highlighted the stark differences between the Republican and Democratic approaches to healthcare reform.
10. In recent years, the Republican base has experienced significant shifts in its demographics and priorities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/republican>