

REPUDIABLE

Meaning: Repudiable: capable of being rejected or disavowed, especially in a legal or moral context.

1. The allegations against him were so serious that they were considered repudiable in a court of law.
2. Her refusal to acknowledge the mistake was seen as an attempt to dismiss the repudiable actions of her team.
3. In philosophical debates, some arguments are deemed repudiable if they lack solid evidence or reasoning.
4. The contract contained several repudiable clauses that could be challenged in a legal dispute.
5. Despite the evidence presented, the defendant's claim remained repudiable and failed to convince the jury.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repudiable>