

REPUDIATION

Meaning: Repudiation is the act of rejecting or disavowing a contract, agreement, or belief, often resulting in significant consequences.

1. The repudiation of the contract left the company in a difficult financial position.
2. Her public repudiation of the controversial policy sparked a heated debate among lawmakers.
3. The committee's repudiation of the previous findings was met with skepticism from the scientific community.
4. He faced severe consequences after the repudiation of his earlier statements regarding the incident.
5. The artist's repudiation of commercial success surprised many of her fans.
6. The repudiation of the agreement left both parties scrambling for a solution.
7. Her repudiation of the accusations came as a surprise to many who had believed the claims.
8. The company's repudiation of the product's defects was met with skepticism from consumers.
9. His public repudiation of the former president signaled a significant shift in political alliances.
10. The court's repudiation of the contract set a precedent for future cases involving similar disputes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repudiation>