

REPUGN

Meaning: Repugnant: causing a strong feeling of disgust or aversion.

1. The politician's repugnant remarks sparked outrage among the community.
2. She found the idea of cheating on her partner utterly repugnant.
3. His behavior at the dinner party was so repugnant that guests started to leave early.
4. Many consider the practice of animal cruelty to be repugnant in any form.
5. The film was criticized for its repugnant portrayal of violence and hatred.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repugn>