

REPUGNABLE

Meaning: Repugnable: deserving strong dislike or disgust; offensive or objectionable.

1. The politician's repugnable actions led to widespread public outrage.
2. Her repugnable behavior at the event shocked everyone in attendance.
3. Many considered his repugnable remarks during the debate to be unacceptable.
4. The film's repugnable themes made it difficult for some viewers to watch.
5. The community rallied together to denounce the repugnable treatment of its members.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repugnable>