

REPUGNANTLY

Meaning: REPUGNANTLY: in a manner that is extremely distasteful, offensive, or repulsive.

1. She spoke repugnantly about her colleagues, leaving everyone uncomfortable.
2. The food was repugnantly spoiled, emitting a smell that made us gag.
3. His actions were repugnantly selfish, disregarding the needs of others entirely.
4. They laughed repugnantly at the misfortune of their rivals, showcasing their lack of empathy.
5. The movie featured repugnantly violent scenes that were difficult to watch.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repugnantly>