

REPUGNATE

Meaning: Repugnant means causing a strong feeling of disgust or aversion; offensive or distasteful.

1. His repugnant behavior during the meeting shocked everyone present.
2. The repugnant ideology of the group led to widespread condemnation.
3. She found his comments to be utterly repugnant and offensive.
4. The film's depiction of violence was so repugnant that many viewers walked out.
5. The politician's repugnant views on immigration sparked fierce protests.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repugnant>