

REPURCHASE

Meaning: Repurchase: to buy back something that was previously sold.

1. The company decided to repurchase its own shares to boost investor confidence.
2. After months of deliberation, she chose to repurchase the vintage car she had sold years ago.
3. Many investors view stock repurchase programs as a sign of a company's financial health.
4. The bookstore plans to repurchase unsold titles from the previous season to make room for new releases.
5. To strengthen its balance sheet, the firm initiated a strategy to repurchase outstanding bonds.
6. The company decided to repurchase its shares to boost investor confidence.
7. After the initial success, she chose to repurchase the product in a different color.
8. Investors were pleased to see the firm announce a repurchase program amid falling stock prices.
9. He regretted selling his favorite book, so he planned to repurchase it from the online store.
10. The board approved a plan to repurchase bonds that were nearing maturity to reduce debt.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repurchase>