

REQUIETORY

Meaning: Requietory: having a calming or soothing effect that brings peace and tranquility.

1. The requietory nature of the landscape brought a sense of peace to her troubled mind.
2. His requietory demeanor made even the most anxious guests feel relaxed and at ease.
3. After a long day, she sought out the requietory sounds of the ocean to soothe her spirit.
4. The garden was designed as a requietory retreat, filled with soft colors and gentle fragrances.
5. In moments of chaos, he found solace in the requietory rhythm of his favorite music.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/requietory>