RESCINDABLE

Meaning: Rescindable: capable of being revoked or canceled under specified conditions.

1. The contract included a clause stating that certain terms were rescindable under specific conditions.

2. In the case of a rescindable agreement, both parties can agree to cancel it without penalties.

3. She was relieved to learn that the offer was rescindable if she found a better opportunity.

4. The rescindable nature of the policy allowed customers to change their minds within a 30-day window.

5. Before signing, he carefully reviewed the details to ensure there were no hidden rescindable elements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rescindable