

RESEARCH

Meaning: Research is the systematic investigation and study of materials and sources to establish facts and reach new conclusions.

1. The research conducted by the team unveiled groundbreaking insights into renewable energy.
2. She spent countless hours in the library, immersed in research for her thesis.
3. His research has significantly contributed to our understanding of climate change effects.
4. The university is known for its cutting-edge research in artificial intelligence and robotics.
5. After years of research, they finally developed a cure for the rare disease.
6. The research conducted on climate change revealed alarming trends in global temperatures.
7. Many universities offer funding opportunities for students interested in pursuing groundbreaking research.
8. Her research into ancient civilizations provided new insights into their social structures and daily lives.
9. The team is preparing to publish their research findings in a renowned scientific journal.
10. Government agencies often prioritize research that addresses public health issues and community needs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/research>