

RESELL

Meaning: To resell means to sell an item again, typically after purchasing it, often at a higher price for profit.

1. Many entrepreneurs choose to resell popular items online for a profit.
2. You can buy concert tickets and then resell them at a higher price if the demand increases.
3. Some stores offer discounts for bulk purchases, allowing customers to resell the items individually.
4. She decided to resell her old furniture instead of throwing it away to make some extra cash.
5. With the rise of e-commerce, many people have started to resell vintage clothing and accessories.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/resell>