

RESEMBLE

Meaning: Resemble: to have a similar appearance or qualities to someone or something else.

1. She began to resemble her mother more as she grew older.
2. The two paintings resemble each other in style and color palette.
3. His voice tends to resemble that of a famous singer.
4. The twins resemble each other so closely that it's hard to tell them apart.
5. A good story should resemble life in its complexity and unpredictability.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/resemble>