

RESEND

Meaning: Resend: to send something again, typically referring to a message or document that was previously sent.

1. Could you please resend the email with the updated attachments?
2. If you didn't receive my last message, I'll be happy to resend it.
3. The technician asked me to resend the report after making the necessary corrections.
4. I need to resend the invitation to the meeting because some people were left out.
5. After confirming the error, she decided to resend the package to the correct address.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/resend>