

RESENTINGLY

Meaning: Resentingly: in a manner that expresses bitterness or indignation due to perceived unfairness or disrespect.

1. She accepted the compliment, albeit resentingly, wishing she could brush it off.
2. He walked away from the meeting resentingly, feeling his ideas were dismissed without consideration.
3. As she handed over the report resentingly, she couldn't help but feel slighted by the criticism.
4. Resentingly, he nodded at the team leader, knowing he would have to follow orders he didn't agree with.
5. They embraced the change resentingly, hoping it would prove beneficial despite their misgivings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/resentingly>