

RESERVATIVE

Meaning: Preservative: a substance added to food or other perishable items to prevent decay or spoilage and extend shelf life.

1. The chef used a preservative to extend the shelf life of the homemade sauce.
2. Many consumers are becoming increasingly wary of foods containing artificial preservatives.
3. Natural preservatives can often be found in organic food products as an alternative.
4. Some studies suggest that certain preservatives may have adverse effects on health.
5. The bakery prides itself on using no preservatives in its artisanal bread.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reservative>