

RESIDENTIAL

Meaning: Residential refers to an area or building designed primarily for people to live in, typically characterized by homes or apartments.

1. The neighborhood is known for its quiet, residential streets lined with trees.
2. They are planning to build a new residential complex that will include affordable housing.
3. Many residential areas are designed with parks and recreational facilities for families.
4. The residential zoning laws in the city restrict the types of businesses that can operate there.
5. She moved to a residential community that offers a range of amenities for its residents.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/residential>