

RESINIC

Meaning: Resinic refers to a substance or finish that is derived from or related to resin, often used to enhance durability and shine in various applications, such as art and manufacturing.

1. The artist chose a resinic finish for the sculpture to enhance its durability and shine.
2. Resinic compounds are often used in the manufacturing of adhesives and varnishes.
3. The resinic texture of the surface added a unique depth to the painting.
4. In chemistry, resinic materials are valued for their insulating properties.
5. The workshop smelled of resinic fumes as the craftsmen worked on their latest projects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/resinic>