

RESISTFUL

Meaning: Resistful (adjective): characterized by a tendency to oppose or withstand influence, pressure, or temptation.

1. The child's resistful nature made it difficult for her parents to enforce bedtime rules.
2. Despite the temptations surrounding him, he remained resistful in his commitment to a healthier lifestyle.
3. The resistful attitude of the team members hindered any chance of collaboration on the project.
4. In the face of peer pressure, she was impressively resistful, sticking to her own beliefs.
5. His resistful demeanor during the negotiation indicated he was not willing to compromise easily.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/resistful>