

RESOLUTORY

Meaning: Resolatory refers to a statement or clause that clarifies or resolves terms in an agreement, often ensuring commitment from involved parties.

1. The judge issued a resolatory statement that clarified the terms of the agreement.
2. In negotiations, a resolatory clause can help ensure both parties are committed to fulfillment.
3. Her resolatory approach to the complex problem brought about a swift and effective solution.
4. They relied on the resolatory provisions of the contract to settle their dispute amicably.
5. The team's resolatory measures aimed to address the underlying issues before they escalated.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/resolatory>