

RESOLVE

Meaning: To resolve means to find a solution to a disagreement or conflict.

1. She had to resolve the conflict between her colleagues before the project could move forward.
2. After much deliberation, he decided to resolve his differences with his neighbor over the property line.
3. The committee worked tirelessly to resolve the issues that had arisen during the event planning.
4. Her determination to resolve the mystery kept her awake late into the night.
5. They reached a mutual agreement to resolve their disputes without involving legal action.
6. To truly resolve the conflict, both parties must be willing to compromise.
7. She was determined to resolve her doubts before making a final decision.
8. The committee worked tirelessly to resolve the issues raised by the community.
9. His ability to resolve problems quickly made him an invaluable asset to the team.
10. They reached out to a mediator in hopes of finding a way to resolve their differences amicably.
11. I need to resolve this issue before it escalates any further.
12. After much deliberation, she finally found the resolve to pursue her passion for painting.
13. The team worked together to resolve the conflict and restore harmony within the group.
14. He was determined to resolve his differences with his colleague for the sake of their project.
15. Through patience and understanding, they were able to resolve their long-standing disagreements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/resolve>