RESORBENT

Meaning: Resorbent (adj.): having the ability to absorb or reabsorb substances, particularly in medical or geological contexts.

1. The clinical trials revealed that the new medication had resorbent properties that improved patient recovery times.

2. In geology, certain minerals act as resorbents, helping to recycle nutrients within the ecosystem.

3. Researchers are exploring the use of resorbent materials in advanced dental applications for better healing.

4. The innovative design utilized a resorbent scaffold that gradually dissolved, promoting natural tissue regeneration.

5. In biochemistry, resorbent compounds can play a crucial role in cellular processes by aiding in the reabsorption of essential ions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/resorbent