

RESOUN

Meaning: Resound (verb): to echo or reverberate with sound; to produce a loud or prolonged sound.

1. The sound of laughter would resound through the halls during the holiday gatherings.
2. As the orchestra played the final note, applause began to resound in the concert hall.
3. Her voice would resound in his mind long after their conversation had ended.
4. The echoes of their joyous shouts would resound across the valley.
5. In the quiet of the night, the church bells began to resound, calling the faithful to worship.
6. The echoes of laughter resound through the empty halls of the old mansion.
7. As the choir sang, their voices resounded beautifully across the cathedral's high ceilings.
8. The news of their victory resounded in the hearts of fans around the world.
9. In the quiet forest, the sound of rustling leaves resounded like a gentle whisper.
10. Her words resound with wisdom, leaving a lasting impact on everyone who hears them.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/resoun>