

RESPEAK

Meaning: Respeak: to repeat or rephrase something that has been said, often for clarity or better understanding.

1. Please respeak your request, as I didn't quite catch that the first time.
2. After realizing the error, she asked the interpreter to respeak the previous statement for clarity.
3. In meetings, it's important to respeak any unclear points to ensure everyone is on the same page.
4. The teacher encouraged the students to respeak their ideas so that they could be more effectively communicated.
5. To enhance understanding, the speaker decided to respeak the complex concept in simpler terms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/respeak>