

RESPECT

Meaning: Respect is a feeling of admiration for someone or something based on their qualities, achievements, or abilities, essential for fostering strong relationships and understanding.

1. Respect is essential in building strong relationships and fostering understanding among people.
2. She earned the respect of her colleagues through her dedication and hard work.
3. It's important to teach children the value of respect for themselves and others.
4. In a healthy community, respect for diverse opinions leads to productive discussions.
5. He showed great respect for the traditions of the culture he was visiting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/respect>