

RESPIRABILITY

Meaning: Respirability refers to the quality or condition of air being suitable for breathing, particularly in terms of its safety and health effects on humans.

1. The respirability of the air in urban areas can significantly impact public health.
2. Scientists are studying the respirability of different environments to assess their safety for human habitation.
3. Improving the respirability of indoor spaces has become a priority for architects and designers.
4. High levels of pollution can greatly reduce the respirability of the atmosphere, leading to respiratory issues.
5. The respirability of the atmosphere on Mars poses challenges for future manned missions to the planet.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/respirability>