

RESPITELESS

Meaning: RESPITELESS: adjective describing a state of being without relief or rest, often due to continuous stress or demanding responsibilities.

1. The caregiver felt respiteless after weeks of caring for her ailing mother without any help.
2. He faced a respiteless existence, constantly battling the pressures of work and family life.
3. In a world that seems so noisy and chaotic, finding respiteless moments can feel impossible.
4. The soldiers returned from the battlefield, their respiteless nights filled with haunting memories.
5. She described her workload as respiteless, with deadlines looming and expectations ever rising.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/respiteless>