

RESPOND

Meaning: To reply or react to something, such as a communication or inquiry.

1. She decided to respond to the email as soon as she got home.
2. The teacher encouraged her students to respond thoughtfully to the questions.
3. After much deliberation, he chose to respond to the criticism with grace.
4. When asked about the project, she was quick to respond with her ideas.
5. It's important to respond promptly to customer inquiries to maintain good relations.
6. It's important to respond promptly to customer inquiries to maintain a good relationship.
7. After much consideration, she decided to respond with a heartfelt letter.
8. He didn't know how to best respond to the unexpected compliment.
9. The teacher encouraged the students to respond thoughtfully during the discussion.
10. In an emergency, it's crucial to respond quickly and efficiently.
11. She didn't know how to respond to the unexpected compliment.
12. The teacher asked the students to respond to the question with their own opinions.
13. In times of crisis, it is crucial for leaders to respond quickly and effectively.
14. He struggled to respond to her message, unsure of how to express his feelings.
15. When called upon, the team must respond promptly to any challenges that arise.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/respond>